A. ABACUS Impartiality Policy

1. Description of term :

Impartiality is the actual and perceived presence of objectivity. Objectivity means that conflict of interest do not exist or are resolved so as not to influence adversely the subsequent activities of the BEE verification Agency (SANAS R47 – 02.)

2. Possible conduct that may constitute conflict of interest and subsequent breach of impartiality :

- Having direct or indirect economic interest in the measured entity;
- failure to disclose known relationship(s) that might influence one's judgment during a verification process;
- a person or enterprise acting in their own interest;
- allowing the measured entity to influence the outcome of the verification process;
- verifying an entity to whom ABACUS or any of its staff provided consultant service in the previous two years;
- Verifying an entity where staff of ABACUS have decision making powers and act as directors;
- Verifying an entity where ABACUS, its management and/or staff have financial interest through shareholding or loans;
- Being subjective;
- being submissive to pressure by the measured entity.

Policy Statement:

3. ABACUS and its staff shall use care and professional judgement at all times to maintain impartiality and provide verifications that provide confidence and will not allow commercial or other pressures to compromise impartiality.
4. ABACUS and its staff will operate independently from any other business that may reasonably present a conflict of interest and will not recommend any consulting firm to an entity on the basis that such recommendation will result in the quicker, easier or less expensive service than other consultants.
5. ABACUS will continuously monitor and identify possible threats to its impartiality, analyse those risks and document those risks.
6. ABACUS will educate and make all staff aware of all possible threats of conflict of interest that can arise during each verification.
7. ABACUS will report threats to its impartiality and will assist and support staff in reporting incidents that may compromise ABACUS impartiality
8. ABACUS and its staff will follow the guidelines provided by the:
 - DTI Code of Practice
 - SANAS requirements(R47-02)
 - Code of Conduct of ABVA.

E. Procedure to deal with Disputes

1. Purpose

- The purpose of this procedure is to deal with unresolved complaints and appeals in an impartial and confidential manner.
- The parties shall endeavour to resolve the dispute by negotiation.

2. Procedure

If a complaint or an appeal remains unresolved after the ABACUS- Procedures for handling Complaints and /or Appeals have been followed either party can declare a dispute.

The party declaring the dispute will notify the other party in writing within 10 days after the ABACUS- Complaints or Appeal Procedure have been exhausted .

All disputes will be dealt with by the Managing Director of ABACUS and within 7 days of written notification of a dispute the one party will invite the other party in writing to meet and attempt to resolve the dispute.

- All the proceedings and decisions of the dispute meetings will be recorded and documented . If the dispute has not been resolved by negotiation within 7 days of the commencement of the negotiation or such other extended time period as the parties may agree to, the parties shall submit the dispute for mediation to be administered by the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa, upon such terms as agreed between the parties and the secretariat of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa.
- If the parties fail to reach agreement to submit the dispute for mediation or the dispute remains unresolved after mediation the parties shall within 7 days refer the dispute for arbitration to be administered by the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa.

The decision of the Arbitrator will be final and binding to both parties.

The decisions of the Mediator and / or arbitrator will be recorded in the Complaints and Appeal register.

The Managing Director will oversee implementation of corrective and/or preventive action resulting from the dispute procedure by conducting a review /follow –up within five (5) days after the mediation or arbitration and regularly thereafter as part of his management responsibility.

The Managing Director will submit the Complaints and Appeals Register and a report to the annual Management Review meeting.
